

PRESS RELEASE

Paris, 26 October 2014

Publication of results achieved by European banks in the European Central Bank's Stress Tests

La Banque Postale underwent the Asset Quality Review (AQR) and Stress Test exercise carried out Europe-wide by the European Central Bank (ECB), in collaboration with the French Prudential Supervisory Authority (ACPR), the European Banking Authority (EBA), the European Commission (EC) and the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB).

La Banque Postale is very pleased with the results published today by the ECB and EBA, which prove the quality of its credit risk management and the robustness of its financial model.

Building on its strengths, La Banque Postale is pursuing its development for the benefit of its retail, corporate, professional and local authority customers.

The detailed results of the tests are available on La Banque Postale's website at:

<https://www.labanquepostale.com>

About La Banque Postale

La Banque Postale, a subsidiary of Le Groupe La Poste, operates on the retail banking, insurance and asset management markets. As a civic minded bank, it supports its customers as part of a sustainable banking relationship, with a full range of accessible and reasonably-priced products and services. As a local and public service bank, La Banque Postale meets everyone's requirements, including retail customers, companies, professionals, and the local public sector. It remains at its customers' service through the network of post offices, on the Internet and by telephone, as part of a completely multi-channel relationship.