S&P Global Ratings revised the outlooks of La Banque Postale

On 6 December 2022, S&P Global Ratings (S&P) revised the outlooks of La Banque Postale to negative from stable. The outlook revision follows a similar action on France.

At the same time, S&P affirmed the 'A+/A-1' long- and short-term credit ratings of La Banque Postale.

S&P Global Ratings also confirmed the rating of La Banque Postale's debt instruments.

ABOUT LA BANQUE POSTALE

With its subsidiaries, including CNP Assurances, La Banque Postale is a leading European banking and insurance specialist, ranked 11th in the euro zone by balance sheet assets. Its diversified business model enables it to support 20 million individual and corporate customers with a comprehensive range of products accessible to all. A subsidiary of La Poste group, La Banque Postale offers local banking services through 17,000 contact points, including 7,300 post offices, throughout France. It is also a leader in sustainable finance, rated among the best in the market by nonfinancial rating agencies. Its strategic plan, "La Banque Postale 2030", sets the ambition of becoming the favourite bank of the people of France, with an integrated and omnichannel offer of bank and insurance services based on three distinct brands: La Banque Postale, its everyday bank, Ma French Bank, its 100% mobile bank and Louvre Banque Privée, its private bank. As a community bank, La Banque Postale is fully focused on shaping a just transition to an economy and a society capable of responding to environmental, social, regional and digital challenges.
